Ypsilanti High School

Ypsilanti, Michigan

The Y.H.S. Yearbook is sponsored by the Ypsilanti High School Student Council

Another year has ended
And as it fades away
Fond memories will return to us
Each and every day:

The time we beat Ann Arbor
(Football---nineteen sixty-one)
The way we kept the wrestling crown
That last spring we had won.

Let's not forget the cross-country squad
Nor the honors they have brought
And remember well the other teams
For the victories they have sought.

Our high honors in scholastic fields
Have made us very proud, too.
We recall the hours of studying
That helped us through this year in school.

Happy times were all the dances,
The plays, and concerts, - all.
Then comes to mind the fun we've had
Just walking down the hall.

Yes, it's been a long, hard struggle
To have fun and still be wise,
But we can look back and truly say
It has been "The Time of Our Lives!"

Dedication

We, the students of Ypsilanti High School, gratefully dedicate this yearbook to those citizens who so graciously give of their time and money so that we can maintain certain privileges, and educational opportunities. May we say thanks to the dedicated taxpayers--doctors, lawyers, merchants, or housewives who give us "the time of our lives."

Student Life

The all-school play is typical of an activity involving students from all the classes. Among the characters in the play are Georgia Manchester, a sophomore; Pat Worley, Sandra Anderson and Ken Walker, seniors; and Irva Adiska, a sophomore.

Mr. Nicholas and students in Driver Education class.

Miss Lister in the language lab.

The sophomores captured first place with this "unique" float.

This float brought the seniors second place in the Homecoming parade.

Helen Hamburger, Marjorie Lyke and Judy Owen are busy in home economics class.

Neal Walters is using a mill in shop class.

Ray Legault and Walter Hunter are on the third place French Club float.

Marshall Parsons and Bonnie Grieff were chosen to lead the Band and Drum Corps respectively for next year.

These Yearbook typists Elaine Graichen, Ruth Westcott and Janice Disbrow are hard at work.

What's this? Students in a study hall are really studying!

These broad doors are a familiar sight to most Y.H.S. students.

Ed Shelton, John Hildebrandt and Gene Overton are showing the mechanical advantages of pulleys.

These new senior fads are being admired by Bob Towler, Everett Sinclair and Dan Sheldon. They do look sharp.

Just five more minutes.

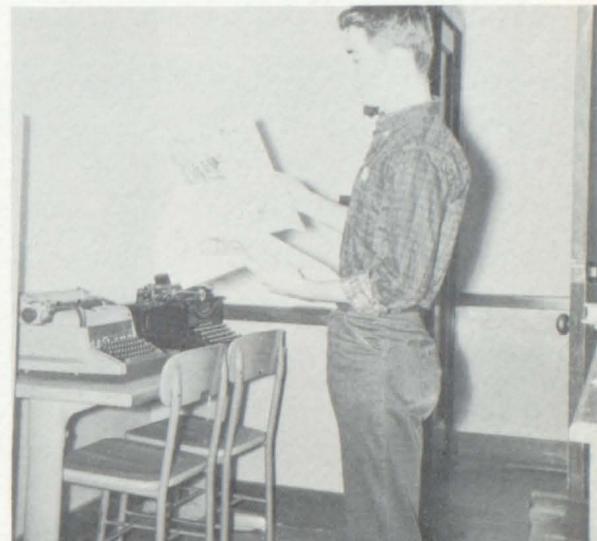

A lot of work went into making the All School Play a success.

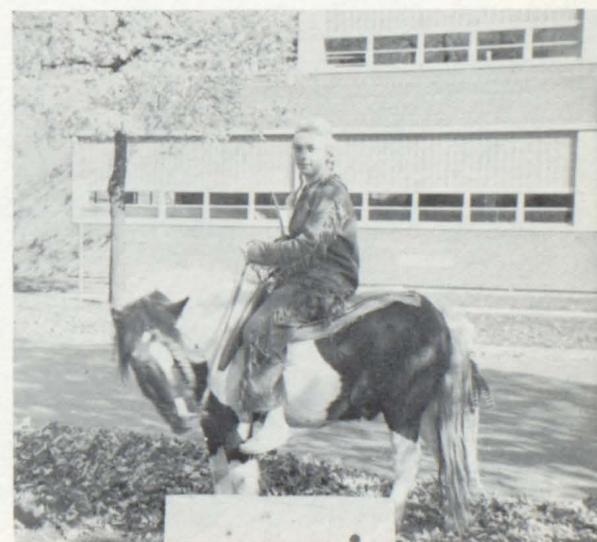

Bonnie Grieff, Leona Rominski and Carol Hall are cutting and pasting pictures for the Yearbook.

These talented musicians entertained the Latin class at Christmas time.

John Ballios did a good job as circulation editor of the SEM.

Jill Greenstreet rode this spirited pony in the Homecoming parade.

Sue Orblych, Dick Robtoy, and Merrilee Gerould are preparing props for the All School Play.

Ed Conrad is busy with a project in wood shop.

These are our wrestling captains?

Bruce Allison, Ken Walker, and Arden Christopher were looking sharp for the Homecoming Parade.

Working hard on the Yearbook are Mary Hoppert, Hedi Klein, and Jackie Tooman.

Graduates of the Class of 1962 will long remember their last year in high school not only because the Braves' football team defeated Ann Arbor, but because this was the year in which man began to fly through the stratosphere in the newly developed space capsules.

The special "maverick" jackets were admired by underclassmen, teachers, and graduates, and were considered by many as the best looking fads in many years.

These girls are busy eating--and talking.

Wayne wanted to be sure to get in this picture.

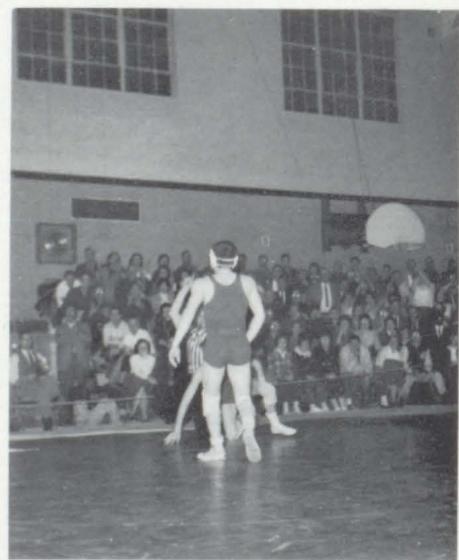

Come on kiddies, gather 'round. Big Dan and Vic will read to you.

"Watch it now, that's my SENIOR FAD!"

That must have been quite a story Janie was telling to Dave!

All right, Tino, go get him!

Now Jim, that's a bad boy!

Linda, Janet, and Kinta are busily at work making posters for the great SENIOR PLAY.

Gordie, Judy, Denny, and Carol seem to be enjoying themselves at the J-Hop.

They say that physics is hard, but they look like they're having fun.

Jan and Phil express how we all felt before we beat Ann Arbor on Homecoming.

Kinta points out her home country, Sweden.

Remember? Our wrestlers won all three trophies in '62; League, Regional, and State.

-for "The Time of Our Lives"

Junior Class

Junior Class Officers: Janet Kemp, treasurer; Chuck Adams, president; Bonnie Grieff, secretary; Mr. Cox, adviser; Susan Keller, vice-president.

Together with the Senior Class we welcomed the Sophomores at the Sophomore Reception, and together with the Sophomores we said good-bye to the Seniors at the Senior Farewell. The success of the J-Hop was due to the efforts of the Class of '63. We had our representatives in sports, in speech events, in music organizations, on the YHS Yearbook and Sem staffs, and all other phases of school activity. It has been a year of fun and achievement for us, truly "the time of our lives."

Board of Education

Planning for the education of the youth of Ypsilanti is the task of the elected members of the Board of Education. During the present year, plans have been made for one new school, and an addition to another elementary school. Certain renovations of rooms is underway in the science department of the high school.

Students and parents appreciate their effort and devotion to Ypsilanti Public Schools.

Mr. Hodley Cox, Assistant Principal

Mr. Norris G. Wiltse, Principal.

Y.H.S. Administrators

Administrators of Ypsilanti High School have constantly sought to promote conditions that make it possible for high school students to achieve success. Schedules and programs of study for students have received every consideration in keeping with sound educational principles.

Mr. Wiltse, principal, has kept educational standards up-to-date and fully accredited by both the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges and the University of Michigan. Graduates with proper academic preparation are welcome to all major universities.

Mr. Cox, assistant principal, has contributed much toward making Ypsilanti High School a place in which all students have an opportunity to gain an education which is conducive to the students success.

Countless hours have been devoted outside of school time in planning and carrying out a well balanced program of curricular and extracurricular activities for high school students.

Under the efficient leadership of Dennis Casselberry and the intelligent direction of Miss Murray, our student council endeavored this year, to promote school activities for the growth and betterment of our school. The twenty-two members of the council have been kept busy with many fund raising projects. They sold sweatshirts, budget tickets, pennants, and sponsored the All School Play, and a movie. The students have all benefited from the interest and work of this year's council.

Student Council Officers work hard to lead the council in planning activities.

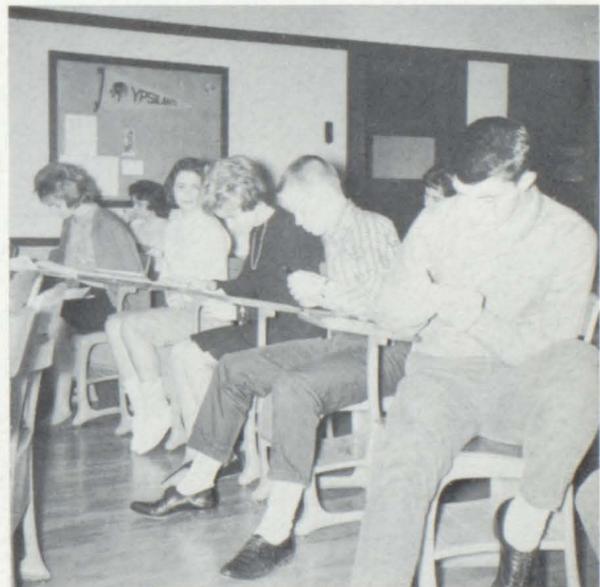

Our president instructs the council.

Council keeps student body well informed.

The election of class officers is supervised by the student council.

Council members are kept busy at meeting.

Under the direction of Miss Madge Iseminger the Ypsilanti High School presented "The Very Opposite Sex," a three act comedy by William Davidson. The cast gave two excellent performances on November 16 and 17. It was the story of a girl who moved to a new town and joins Junior Achievement to achieve a popular senior boy. She loses him first in victory and wins him in defeat. The play is enriched with comedy by the supporting actors, Horse, Emma, Sooky and Mabes.

The lead roles were played by Ken Walker and Sandy Anderson.

The assistant directors, Ed Shelton and Jill Greenstreet, sent roses to the play's director, Miss Iseminger.

Janet Hughes, Chuck Ash, Sandy Shaw, Paul Hamilton. Seated: Gail Peterson and Betty Hines.

Thespians

Mr. Skinner and Merrilee work on props for school play.

The Thespians endeavored this year to promote standards of excellence in all phases of the Dramatic Arts and to create an active interest in Drama among students of the secondary schools. The troupe held two formal initiations this year, helped present two major plays, and held meetings to keep alive an active interest in the theatre. They also held a few parties and brunches after the plays.

Kinta applies make-up to Georgia's face.

 Second Row: Leona Rominski, Marilyn Shepperd, Dan

Matevia, Roland Green, Victor Zerbi, Sharron Moisan, Jackie Tooman.

National Honor Society

Each year the faculty chooses students who have excelled in leadership, service, character, and scholarship. Under the direction of Mrs. Lockwood, this year the group has sponsored many worthy projects such as "The Red Feather Drive."

Members of the Honor Society have worked very hard throughout the year.

Astrojets

The purpose of the Astrojets is to further the advancement of science and engineering by bringing to its members a comprehension of the latest technological innovations. Although the membership is small, the club has conducted many projects and activities of great interest. Among the most important of these were the high-altitude research balloon and the telescope, which were used to obtain valuable information for the club.

Forensic Keys

Two active speech participants, Vic Zerbi and Dan Matevia, are shown practicing their know-how in a recent speech activity.

Forensic keys are awarded to those students who have done outstanding work in debate, discussion, humorous reading, interpretative reading, and declamation activities.

Debate

1961-1962 debating has proven to be excellent experience for the coming year. Approximately 20 debators have participated in at least one practice debate during this season. During the year, Federal Aid to Education has been the very timely topic. In the league tournament Ypsilanti participated in two out of three rounds. Under the capable coaching of Mrs. Horst, the new debaters will be raring to go next year.

Janet Horning, David Arvin, Sally Deck, and Tom Ardis are doing research for debate.

Quill and Scroll

Members of the Quill and Scroll strive to better themselves in their journalistic work. In order to become a member of this honorary society one must be at least a junior and in the upperthird of his class; one must also take an active part in the production of either the school newspaper or the school yearbook.

These three members of Quill and Scroll, Mary Hoppert, Margaret Lamb, and Jill Greenstreet, are putting some final touches on the yearbook.

Yearbook Staff

Mary Hoppert, art editor; Bonnie Grieff, assistant editor; Mr. Randall, adviser; Jackie Tooman, editor; Jill Greenstreet, activities editor.

One of the busiest offices in the school was the yearbook office. This is where, through a great deal of hard work, the yearbook was assembled. The staff was elected by the faculty and advised by Mr. Randall. They began to work in the fall and endeavored throughout the spring to create a yearbook unequaled by any other.

French Club

This year's French Club has been one of the more active clubs in school. To raise money, the members sold candy bars this fall. In the homecoming parade, their float took third prize. The club also had its annual Christmas party, and a fun night with swimming, games, and dancing, held in the gym. It has also had French movies, French slides, food, field trips and guest speakers.

Spanish Club

Elaine Graichen, Pat Wray, Richard Allison, Phyllis Carty, Tom Ardis, and Sue Wright are planning Spanish Club events.

Spanish Club members acquired additional information about our Spanish speaking neighbors and learned to use the language informally. They earned money from their candy sales and threw a gala Christmas party. Throughout the year the 56 members of the club tried to become more familiar with the customs and way of life of the Spanish speaking people.

Candlelight Ceremonies highlight the Future Teachers initiation.

Future Teachers

The students joined F.T.A. to gain experience in teaching and learn the various duties and responsibilities of a teacher. They learned much about the education required and became familiarized with the qualities of a good teacher by attending workshops, conventions, and conferences, and listening to lectures by various teachers. The fifty-two members of this club have been busy with many fund raising projects and sponsoring dances and banquets.

Sue Wright. Third Row: Dennis Casselberry, Lance Klinge, Lana Aeschlinger, Marilyn Barnes, Diane Doot, Connie Lockwood, Elizabeth Hayes, Walter Hunter, Lloyd Woleslagle.

Bible Club

The Bible Club was open to all students of all faiths or no faith. Their purpose was threefold, to study, have fun, and gain fellowship. Using the Bible as a basis of discussion and study, they tried to become better acquainted with God's word and also to see the application of Christianity to present day problems. The club had many outstanding speakers, one of whom was Dr. George Westcott, vice-pres. of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade.

Glenda Hardy and Rolland Meggison are two of the students who are interested in Bible study carried out by this organization.

V a r s i t y

The Varsity Club is made up of boys who have earned a letter in any one of the athletic sports, sponsored by the school. Club members earn money by selling food at the football games, selling programs, and by sponsoring dances. They spend some of their money on the film used in filming the games, and give some of the money to the athletic departments for the purchase of new equipment.

Co-captains, Tino Lambros and Ernie Gillum, led their team to victory in the state meet.

Two of Ypsi's swimmers, Fred Osterwisch and Johnny Short were among the squad who practiced many hours to develop a good swimming team.

A Study in Concentration

Coach Lee kept a close check on the Cross-Country runners. The watch tells the story to a group of interested runners.

Ernie Gillum, Ernie Slater, Terry Hirschlieb, Ronnie Gillum, Clarence Hollifield, Randolph Brewer, Chuck Zagon and Coach Lee gathered to discuss the time, which is essential to a winning team.

Hours of conditioning were needed to make a tough team.

We're sorry to lose them; seniors did their best for the Braves.

The highlight of the year came the following week when the Ypsi Braves played host to the Ann Arbor Pioneers at Ypsi's homecoming. The Braves were very much the underdogs and Ann Arbor was rated in the top ten in the state. The Ypsilanti squad showed excellent team spirit and much determination as they completely overpowered the Pioneers by the score of 20 to 6. It had been the first time since 1948 that the Braves had beaten Ann Arbor. This game marked the end of a long rivalry between the schools because of a league rule.

All in all this was a most successful and memorable year for Ypsi grid fans and one year that won't be forgotten for quite some time, "1962!"

Constant practice in blocking, kicking, passing, and scrimmage have brought this squad, largely composed of raw recruits, into a smooth working unit.

The season record of 1 tie and 7 losses does not reflect the true power of the team as the score of many of the games were very close.

Coach Santer and Coach Silbert have worked diligently with the squad, and the performance of these boys next year will show the results of good training as some of them appear on the varsity team next fall.

State Champions '62

Ypsi High wrestlers, under Coach Waterman, captured the state championship by scoring 62 points; the closest contender, Lansing Sexton, scored 48 points.

During the regular season, 14 out of 15 dual meets were won by the Braves. Both the Huron-Rouge league and Regional tournaments were won by Ypsi wrestlers.

In the state meet, Ernie Gillum and Ronnie Gillum were undefeated. Alan Bastian, Tino Lambros, and Kenneth Walker took second places in state competition.

Swimming

The swimming team, coached by Mr. Ron Monson, placed fourth in the league, although they won only two out of thirteen meets.

Jim Bishop set a varsity record (:24.4) in the 50 yd. free style and Dennis Deck set a record (2:04.4) in the 200 yd. free style. These two swimmers were co-captains of the team.

In the league meet, Bishop placed third in the 50 yd. free style and fourth in the 100 yd. free style; Deck, first in the 100 yd. butterfly; Short, third in the 100 yd. backstroke; Nye, third in diving; Deck, third in the 200 yd. free style.

Basketball

A very enthusiastic basketball team represented Y.H. S. during the '61 season. Several victories were won against strong opponents, as the Cagers defeated Plymouth, Monroe (2 games), Ann Arbor, Melvindale, and Lincoln Park. A total of six games were won and ten were lost.

In the District Tournament, Ypsi defeated Plymouth (68-57) they lost to Adrian in the final game by two points (52-54).

The high scorer for the year was Mike Bass with 281 points scored against opponents.

Coach Nicholas and the team showed excellent spirit and demonstrated a good brand of basketball.

Reserve Basketball

Coach Sibert and the reserve squad worked hard on the fundamentals of the game and showed steady progress in ball handling as the season progressed. Six games were won, and ten were lost.

Several boys who served on the reserves this year will be seen in action on the varsity line-up next year.

Varsity Track

Ypsilanti High School's track team under Coach Lee's direction started the season with 13 returning lettermen and a squad of 60 boys.

Having won the Huron-Rouge Championship last year, a tough goal was set for this year.

Among the outstanding lettermen were Ivory Oliver, Mike Bass, Terry Herschlieb, Randolph Brewer, and Bruce Allison.

This year's track team showed much spirit and furnished hard competition for competitors.

For the past three seasons Coach Moffett has developed a baseball team that was a tough competitor in the Huron-Rouge League.

This year a job of rebuilding was done, since only one regular player, Rudy Anderson, from last year's team returned for the team this year.

A total of 14 games were scheduled for the 1961-62 season. This new team showed much promise and was a credit to Ypsilanti High School.

Rudy Anderson, veteran shortstop, sparked Ypsi's team with the urge to win.

Reserve

Baseball

A squad of about 25 sophomores turned out for the reserves. Coach Monson sought to develop the group in fundamentals so that traditionally fine baseball teams may continue at Y.H.S.

A schedule of 12 games was made and the reserves demonstrated some good ball playing during the season.

Don Stout and Steve Sattler demonstrated the fundamentals of the game.

Cheerleaders

This year's YHS cheerleading squad has been one of the best ever. Under the able direction of Miss Rataiczak, adviser, and Phyllis Baker and Dorothy Lee, co-captains, the cheerleading squad has developed into an outstanding unit. Enthusiastic support for our teams was truly fulfilled in the 61-62 season.

Under the able direction of Mr. Queen, the A' Cappella Choir had an unusually successful year. The entire choir participated in the District Choral Music Contest with several members also taking part in the district solo and ensemble contest. In addition to the Christmas program presented to the students, the Choir also gave a Christmas Vespers program for the public. The activities continued with the Easter assembly and concerts for the Junior High Schools. The high point of the year was marked by the annual May Festival. The season closed with the A' Cappella dinner, honoring the senior members.

Concert Band

Following a very exciting week at Interlochen last August, the band returned home to present some of the finest football shows in the history of the marching band. They included the "Circus Show" featuring the Glenn Miller arrangement of "The Saint Louis Blues March." The band received a "superior" rating for its presentation of the "Blues Show" at the Washtenaw County Invitational, held at Willow Run High School. This was the first time the band had ever participated in this type of competition. Individual band members received a total of eleven first division ratings and thirteen second division ratings in the District Solo and Ensemble Contest, and the band as a whole participated in the District Band Festival. The season reached its peak with the presentation of the Annual Spring Concert.

The social activities for the year included a party in November, a spring picnic, and of course the Military Ball in March.

Certainly the 1961-62 band will be remembered as one of the best yet.

"Beat! Beat! Drums! -----Blow! Bugles! Blow!" This year, our corps of girls, dressed in their traditional Scottish-plaids, provided colorful entertainment for our home football games. In addition to participating in various local parades, the Girls' Drum and Bugle Corps also represented Ypsilanti High in the Annual Spring Tulip Festival in Holland.

Highlighting the social activities of the year was the Fourth Annual Senior Banquet, which was held in December. The dinner was given by the sophomores and juniors and honored the graduating girls in the Corps.
